Regarding claims 7-8, Meister teaches the ability to remove addresses from a "To" field, a "Cc" field and a "Bcc" field by way of a dialog for removing addresses from any and all fields in an e-mail message used to specify addressees, at col. 3, lines 45-50.

Regarding claim 9, Meister teaches a "To" field for listing primary addresses to receive a message, and a field used to specify addresses to be removed from the "To" field in preparation for sending the message, taught as the use of a "Modify Addresses" control of the e-mail message that allows a user to selectively modify and remove the intended recipients of an e-mail message, including those found in the "To" field, at col. 3, lines 45-50.

Regarding claims 10-11, and 13, Meister teaches removing selected addresses specified in a "Cc" field and a "Bcc" field, taught as the use of a "Modify Addresses" control of the e-mail message that allows a user to selectively modify and remove the intended recipients of an e-mail message, including those found in the "To" field, at col. 3, lines 45-50.

Regarding claim 12, Meister teaches a dialog for removing addresses from any and all fields in an e-mail message used to specify addressees, at col. 3, lines 45-50.
